

November 4, 1957

Dear Mr. Holt:

We have had an emergency meeting and have been send you this much on the immediate problems you face. We realize that this does not cover all the obligation with which you are confronted. However, we feel this is a little help until we can have a full meeting Tuesday November 12, 1957. In the meantime, please let us know how things are with you. We are still interested. If anything else of a favorable nature developes before next Tuesday, we will contact you accordingly.

Sincerely,

C. E. DeVane
