

African Americans in North Carolina--Live Streaming Event, February 15, 2017

Educators: Use this worksheet during the live streaming event.

Have students complete the sentences below with the correct name from the word bank.

Luke Martin Thomas Day George White Anna Cooper Thelonious Monk
Ella Baker John Chavis Harriet Jacobs Floyd McKissick

- _____ was a free man of color who fought in the Revolutionary War, was an ordained minister, and later settled in Raleigh, where he was a teacher to both white and black communities.
- After hiding in her grandmother's tiny attic for seven years, _____ escaped enslavement in Edenton and published Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Written by Herself in 1861.
- North Carolina's most successful cabinetmaker in the Antebellum (before the Civil War) time period, _____ was a free man of color who employed whites, enslaved people, and free men of color in his workshop in Milton.
- Enslaved, _____, swam across three rivers in order to join the Union Army and fight for the end of slavery.
- Elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from North Carolina's Second District, _____ served from 1898 to 1901, when Jim Crow voting laws made re-election impossible.
- Born in Rocky Mount, _____'s family left North Carolina in 1922, for better opportunities in New York City. He became a leading jazz musician.
- Civil Rights leader _____ was born in Asheville in 1922 and was the first African American student to attend UNC Chapel Hill's School of Law.
- _____ graduated from Shaw University and was a Civil Rights leader who helped found the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee in 1960.

