

Application Checklist:

- € I represent a non-profit group with a 501(c)3 designation, an academic institution, or a government entity

Please share what group you are affiliated with:

- € I have included a current letter of support from my associated non-profit group with a 501(c)3 designation, an academic institution, or a government entity specific to this project.
- € I have included a letter from the landowner granting permission for the marker to be installed.
- € I have included photocopies/scans of the primary and secondary sources used to put together my application
- € I have included a bibliography listing the primary and secondary sources used.
- € I have completed and attached my historical application.
- € I represent a Hometown Strong County (County: _____)
(not required, the program has a goal of placing 10 in these counties)
- € I want to mark a:
 - € Protest, rally, or sit-in site
 - € Birthplace, childhood home, or primary residence of a civil rights icon
 - € Church or space where people organized
 - € Space or place where a civil rights icon visited, stayed, or spoke
 - € Educational institution
 - € Legal site or courthouse

(Check all that apply)

Application 2023 Cycle

If application materials are missing, the Advisory Committee will not review your application. If you are having difficulties assembling the materials, please email our NCCRT Coordinator (nccivilrights@ncdcr.gov). They will do their best to assist.

Application Guidelines:

- Applications must be complete, clear, and organized
- All facts and statements must be documented with primary sources that were written at the time of the event and secondary sources that put the subject in context. (Primary sources include letters, deeds, newspaper articles, or meeting minutes that might substantiate the historical information in the application.)
- The applicant must locate secondary sources about the marker subject. (Secondary sources include published scholarly articles or books.)
- Applications must be typed rather than handwritten.
- Photocopies/scans must include citations: the title, author, and date of publication.
- Photocopies/scans of all documentation, primary and secondary, must be submitted with the application.
- If you are mailing your application, for scanning purposes, please use paperclips rather than staples.
- Electronic applications and documentation (submitted via Google Drive or Dropbox Link) are welcome and appreciated.
- Questions? Email us at nccivilrightstrail@ncdcr.gov.

Deadline: Sunday, September 29, 2023 by 11:59pm

Examples of Strong Marker Applications:

Greensboro Polio Hospital

State v. Will

Next Steps:

After your application is submitted, it will be reviewed by the NC Civil Rights Trail Advisory Committee. You will be notified of your application status (marker approved, or application denied) by October 2023.

If you do not receive a marker this cycle, you may re-apply one time.

This project is made possible by funding from the William G. Pomeroy Foundation.

Application
2023 Cycle

D. Historical essay (Tell us more! Use this space to help us understand the marker subject and the context. This is also the place to establish statewide and/or regional significance.):

Application
2023 Cycle

E. Bibliography: (Primary and secondary sources.)

This project is made possible by funding from the William G. Pomeroy Foundation.

F. Proposed marker text (Optional; Each marker's title line will allow 15 characters. The five body lines can have 27 characters each, including spaces and punctuation.):

G. SUBMITTED BY:

_____ (name) _____ (email address)

_____ (address)

_____ (city) _____ (state) _____ (zip code)

_____ (daytime phone number) Date: _____

This project is made possible by funding from the William G. Pomeroy Foundation.

Application
2023 Cycle

Return address:

NC Civil Rights Trail Marker Program
NC African American Heritage Commission
4632 Mail Service Center
Raleigh, NC 27699-4632

To email application, please submit to: nccivilrightstrail@ncdcr.gov

If submitting application by email, we kindly request that application materials are submitted via Google Drive or Dropbox link, and not as attachments.