Negro Sues For Admission To Raleigh School

RALEIGH (AP) — The Raleigh School Board has until Sept. 30 to file its answer to the federal court action launched by a Negro student to gain admission to a white high school.

Judge Don Gilliam yesterday postponed the deadline for filing the answer, which originally would have been due Sept. 19.

Joseph Holt Jr., whose application to enter a white high school was refused by the school board, is the plaintiff in the suit. The Holt application was the only one before the Raleigh Board in which a Negro sought to enter a white school.
